Colonel Michael Pennefather

Husband, Father, Teacher, Coach, & Servant of God

July 15, 1937 – June 9, 1998

After serving in the Air Force “Colonel P.” (as he was referred to) loved teaching and coaching students at Seton School. He also coached several AAU championship basketball teams. He had a profound impact on many youths - changing their lives because he cared for them. He dispensed wisdom. He dispensed love. A devout Catholic, he taught moral lessons with candor and humor.

Diagnosed with cancer at age 60 with only three months to live, he taught the Seton community “Trustful Surrender” to God’s will. When Colonel P. died in June 1998, it was evident he had affected many lives. Over 900 people attended his funeral.

His wife Jane and seven children carry on his legacy of faith through teaching, raising Catholic families, and serving the Church in religious life.

2011 Golf Tournament – Our 11th Annual

Last year’s tournament was a “smashing” success: a fun raiser for the over 100 golfers and sponsors. In the last ten years your participation generated over $100,000 to the Seton Athletic Program covering normal necessary operational expenses such as purchasing equipment and uniforms, covering referee fees, renting fields, operating activity buses, funding tournament play, and continuing the Col. P. Scholarship (2011 winners were Bridget Wunderly and Nick Kenna). The results of your support have included state and league titles, but most importantly are the many life lessons student-athletes learn through a commitment to Seton Sports.

2011 Tournament Goal is $20,000

This is the ONLY fund raiser for Seton Athletics

Please honor Colonel P. and show your support for Seton Athletics.

Sign up now to play and get others to join you. Have your business or organization be a sponsor or donor. Sponsorship is available at all levels including donations to allow a priest or Seton faculty to play.
